

Ecology and Documentary AwardHow it is possible to sell a sky and warmth of the soil?

Petar Lalovic - 15' - Serbia and Montenegro

A warning to human beings that, day after day, loot the earth stripping it bare of its precious but not inexhaustible resources. A rat race towards total destruction, its inhabitants showing no concern at all, since they firmly believe they are allowed to exploit the resources of the environment.

Ecologic short by schools AwardZoo

Raffaella Traniello, classe 4A - Scuola primaria Marconi di Ponte San Nicolò (Padova) - 4' - Italy

To prompt children's creativity towards the reality that surrounds them.

Documentary on the Territory AwardOperai di carta nella fabbrica di scatole di cartone

Stefano Stoto - 27' - Italy

A highly topical occurrence in the landscape of world economy, which impacts local economies, where entrepreneurs must develop production strategies, that often clash with the requirements of the working class in the territory. A real fight for survival, which often causes victims in the weakest areas of society.

Free subject – Fiction AwardHabibi

Davide Del Degan - 20' - Italy

The film deals with the topic of the sufferings caused by the war and its brutality without rhetoric and filtering it through the dreams of happiness of two small kids.

Ecology and fiction AwardIl soffio della terra

Stefano Russo - 15' - Italy

The film analyses the right to decide on the quality of one's life through the vicissitudes of a person's life, which invites us all to think.

Free subject – Documentary AwardCat and Mouse

Bijan Zamanpira - 26' - Iran

The film paints a sad and dramatic picture from life in poor countries where the imagination of the local entrepreneurs turns stale bread collection into a survival business. Bread which, once processed, comes back on to the western world tables.

Free subject – Animation AwardGamba trista

Francesco Filippi - 8' - Italy

A boy's will allows him to brilliantly overcome his handicap and live a happy life with the others.

Animation and Ecology AwardErgo

Géza M. Tóth - 13' - Hungary

Through animation, the movie manages to convey the concept of total annihilation.